Scholarship Competition rules:

- 1) All entrants submit a written essay and an oral speech video presentation prior to the conference.
- 2) Your typed written essay must be 700 words on the youth conference theme, which will be evaluate by judges who have no connection with the youth conference. The evaluation process will be anonymous.
- 3) Your typed written essay must include a cover page including: entrant name, address, telephone number, and congregation of the entrant. Remember, this is an essay competition. Poems and dramatic readings will NOT be accepted. Any poetry or dramatic readings submitted will be disqualified.
- 4) You must deliver a 5 to 10-minute oral speech video presentation that will be evaluated by a panel of judges prior to the youth conference. Less than 5 minutes “no points awarded”
- 5) If entrant is the only participant, the entrant must receive seventy percent of total points to be awarded the full scholarship.
- 6) The written and oral speech video scores will be valued at 50% each. The written essay will be judged on relevance to the theme, grammar, spelling, and punctuation. The oral speech video presentation will be judged on quality of video (including sound and visual clarity), poise, and delivery.
- 7) In the event of a tie, scores taken by an OSYC Board representative will be tabulated and combined with judge’s scores.
